

WILD AFRICAN CHIEFTAN VISITING FRENCH CAPITAL

Is Bewildered By the Wonderful Sights of Modern Civilization—Has Bad Attack of Sea Sickness on Journey, and Says "the Sensation Is Simply Marvelous, Remarkable, Wonderful"; Says Also It Was "Surprising."

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.)

Paris, Aug. 11.—Moussa-Ah-Amstane, a Touareg chieftain from Northern Africa, is in Paris today seeing the sights of modern civilization for the first time.

Street cars, electric and gas lights, railroads and the big stores are all wonderful, but the chieftain admitted nothing in his experience so surprised him as seasickness.

As the chieftain was fearfully ill while crossing the Mediterranean, he says he is now an authority on mal de mer.

"Marvelous—simply marvelous," exclaimed the chieftain, or at least that is what his interpreter said. "This seasickness is the most wonderful thing I ever came across. I was so ill that I wanted to die. But the sensation is remarkable, wonderful."

The chieftain is making his first trip outside the confines of his native dominion.

ONE MANEUVER THAT WAS NOT ON THE STATE

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.)

Cheyenne, Wyo., Aug. 11.—United States army officers today are scouring the country for miles around Pole mountain for the robbers who stole the paymaster's safe from the maneuver camp at Pole mountain, containing $6,500, and made good their escape.

The safe arrived some time ago and contained nearly $50,000. All but $5,500 had been given out in pay. The paymaster's tent was heavily guarded at the time of the robbery and the officers of the camp are at a loss to account for the daring theft.

LOS ANGELES PROHIBITS THE BIG FIGHT PICTURES

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.)

Los Angeles, Calif., Aug. 11.—Those who go to Arcadia tonight to see the first public exhibition of the Jeffries-Johnson moving pictures in California, take chances of going to jail, according to District Attorney Fredericks.

The city board of trustees of Arcadia granted a license to the proprietor of a local hotel to show the pictures. Fredericks says the trustees had no right to grant the license.

FISHERMEN VIOLATING THE LAWS

SHORT RUN OF SALMON IMPELS
THE GILL NETTERS TO DIS-
REGARD THE LAW CLOSING
FISHING FROM SATURDAY TO SUNDAY EVENINGS.

Because the salmon fishing season is beginning to wane fishermen along the Columbia river are inclined to violate that provision of the law which provides that there must be no fishing from 6 o'clock Saturday evening until 6 o'clock Sunday evening, and the deputy wardens are being kept busy in preventing violations and apprehending violators.

A number of arrests have been made recently and in two of the cases the deputy warden declined to surrender to the fisherman the note he had appropriated until directed to do so by the attorney general. The cases were tried before a justice of the peace at Astoria, and the deputy warden insisted that the justice put the maximum penalty on the violators, which included the confiscation of their fishing nets, as he was of the opinion that only the extreme penalty would call a halt in the violations of the law. The court, however, imposed the minimum penalty and it was then the deputy warden defied it, and refused to turn over to the fishermen their fishing nets. The matter was taken up with the attorney general who directed him to turn the nets over, and he immediately complied with his order. The salmon fishing season will close August 25, until September 15, when it will open again and remain so until March 1, of next year.

INDICTED PACKER FOR PERJURY

THOMAS G. LEE, OF ARMOUR &
CO., TESTIFIES BEFORE
GRAND JURY AND THAT BODY
PROMPTLY INDICTS HIM FOR FALSE SWEARING.

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.)

Chicago, Aug. 11.—Thomas G. Lee, of Armour & Co., was today indicted for perjury by the federal grand jury that has been investigating the alleged packing trust. The indictment is the first that has been returned by the special grand jury. It is reported that a number of others will follow.

Lee told the jury, according to the indictment, that Thomas H. Platt, of Armour's did not attend the daily meetings with the other packers at which it is alleged the day's prices on packing house products and incoming livestock are fixed. The jury had other evidence. It is alleged, that Platt attended these meetings and indicted Lee for perjury.

Judge Landis issued a bench warrant for Lee, who is superintendent of the pressed beef department of Armour & Co. The jury reported to Judge Landis that on August 3 three stenographers testified they had taken vital dictation from Lee, White and Russell of Armour & Co. They were asked to produce the note books containing the dictation Superintendent Edmunds of the Armour plant, said the note books had been destroyed.

Edmunds was examined by the jury and said that A. R. Urion, attorney for the packing company, had advised him to report that the books were unavailable.

The jurors asked that Judge Landis cite Urion, Michael Barrows, James Loftis, William Walsh, W. W. Shaw, W. A. Alexander and Assistant General Manager Willets, all of the Armour Company, to show why they should not be adjudged guilty of contempt of court and of obstructing justice. It is likely that the citations will be issued.

THE LANGFORD KAUFMAN FIGHT IS CALLED OFF

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 11.—The Langford-Kaufman fight has been called off. The fighters disagreed over the postponement and the fuss became so strenuous that it was decided to call the fight off altogether.

Langford asked a week's postponement yesterday when it was decided that the fight could not be held last night. He said he was not in condition. Kaufman refused to agree to a week's delay and after a heated argument over the postponement today, Harry Edwards, the promoter, called the match off.

Bob Deady, representing Kaufman, notified Edwards that unless Langford lived up to the articles and fought tonight there would be no scrap. Edwards endeavored to persuade Langford to fight, saying it was not fair to disappoint the spectators, some of whom had come from a considerable distance.

Langford replied stubbornly that he did not feel right and that he would be beaten if he fought tonight. He said he would not enter the ring. Edwards announced that he expects to substitute a Burns-Ketchel or a Burns-Kaufman match soon.
